Remarks

1. This maximum tax deduction limit is the aggregate limit for Mandatory Provident Fund Tax Deductible Voluntary Contribution and deferred annuity premiums. It is also based on the information on allowance published by the Inland Revenue Department ("IRD") as of the print date of this leaflet and is subject to change from time to time. Only the qualified annuity premiums paid in relation to the annuity payments can be tax deductible. Please note any premiums paid for any supplements attached to IncomeEnrich will not be qualified for tax deduction.
2. The benefit periods of Smart Medicare, WiseGuard Medical and WiseGuard Pro are up to age 100 (age at last birthday) of the insured person, subject to the termination of policy as stated in section Important information of the relevant product brochures respectively.
3. Subject to the terms and benefits of the policy contract, you have a guaranteed right to renew the policy by making payment of the prevailing premium on each policy anniversary.
4. Full cover shall mean the actual amount of eligible expenses and other expenses charged after deducting the remaining deductible (if any), and is subject to the annual benefit limit, lifetime benefit limit and other conditions. Psychiatric treatments and medical implants are excluded from full cover benefit. Further details of the terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations are provided in the policy contract.
5. If after a no claim discount has been deducted, a claim incurred in respect of previous 5 policy years becomes payable under WiseGuard Pro, the no claim discount shall be re-calculated by taking into account the relevant claim payable, and the policy holder shall return to the Company the difference between the recalculated amount and the no claim discount actually paid to the policy holder, otherwise the Company will not pay such claim.
6. Network doctors and network healthcare facilities are independent third parties and are not agents of AXA. AXA shall not have any obligation or liability whatsoever in relation to the medical services provided by network doctors and network healthcare facilities, and shall not be responsible for any act or failure to act on the part of network doctors and network healthcare facilities.
7. If after a no claim discount has been deducted, a claim incurred in respect of previous 3 policy years becomes payable under Smart Medicare or Smart Medimoney (where applicable), the no claim discount shall be re-calculated by taking into account the relevant claim payable, and the policy holder shall return to the Company the difference between the recalculated amount and the no claim discount actually paid to the policy holder, otherwise the Company will not pay such claim.
8. The provision of services is subject to the terms and conditions of the worldwide emergency assistance. AXA reserves the right to amend the terms and conditions thereof from time to time without prior notice. This is an optional service. Clients can opt-out the services by writing to AXA.
9. All illustrated examples in this leaflet are for reference only. The actual tax savings may be lower than the above examples. The final calculation is subject to the actual assessment results of the IRD. Moreover, the above examples are calculated based on the allowances, deductions, and tax rates for the year of assessment 2019/20 and assume that (i) the tax payable is calculated at progressive rates; and (ii) the taxpayer has no other allowances, deductions, or tax concessions, except for the allowances and deductions illustrated above.
10. Each taxpayer can enjoy a maximum tax deductible limit of HKD60,000, which is the aggregate limit for qualifying annuity premiums and Mandatory Provident Fund Tax Deductible Voluntary Contribution. While for VHIS, each taxpayer can enjoy a maximum tax deductible limit of HKD8,000 for qualifying VHIS premiums paid for each insured person.

You must meet all the eligibility requirements set out under the Inland Revenue Ordinance and any guidance issued by the IRD of HKSAR before you can claim the tax deductions.

Any general tax information provided is for your reference only, and you should not make any tax-related decisions based on such information alone. You should always consult with a professional tax advisor if you have any doubts. Please note that the tax law, regulations or interpretations are subject to change and may affect related tax benefits including the eligibility criteria for tax deduction. We do not take any responsibility to inform you about any changes in the laws and regulations or interpretations, and how they may affect you. Please contact the IRD directly for any tax related enquiries.
