Terms and Conditions for Second Medical Opinion

Policy number:

Policy Holder:

Policy Effective Date:

Type of the Certified Plan: "Flexi Plan"

Name of the Certified Plan: Blue Cross Dynasty VHIS Plan

The other services described in the following additions are incorporated in this Policy as from the above "Policy Effective Date":

Second Medical Opinion may be offered to the Insured Person subject to the final approval of the Company.

If, upon medical consultation, an Insured Person is suspected of suffering from or has been diagnosed by a Registered Medical Practitioner with any medical conditions as defined below ("Qualifying Medical Conditions"), upon the request of the Insured Person, a Second Medical Opinion service will be provided by MediGuide International, LLC ("MediGuide"), or other service provider appointed by the Company from time to time.

For the avoidance of doubt, Qualifying Medical Conditions shall mean any Disabilities except that:

- a) the Insured Person has not been given an official diagnosis by his attending Registered Medical Practitioner in respect of such Disability;
- b) the Insured Person has not been evaluated by his attending Registered Medical Practitioner in respect of such Disability within the last 12 months prior to the date of the Insured Person's request for SMO service; or
- c) in the opinion of MediGuide or other service provider appointed by the Company from time to time:-
 - (i) such Disability is acute and life-threatening; or
 - (ii) physical evaluation is required for such Disability such as mental illnesses.

Procedure: The Insured Person or his representative(s) shall contact MediGuide's local representative by calling (852) 8101-3682 anytime to open a medical second opinion case.

The party making such call will be required to provide the "Policy Number" as stated in the Policy Schedule and the name of the Insured Person to MediGuide. After validation of coverage eligibility, the SMO service will be arranged by MediGuide.

Provision of the required documents, medical proof and information in respect of the Insured Person to MediGuide shall be a condition precedent to process the request. After MediGuide receives all the necessary information, it will suggest 3 world leading medical centres for provision of the SMO service and the Insured Person may choose 1 of them for evaluation of the diagnosis and recommendation of the most appropriate treatment.

(These services/benefits do not form part of the VHIS certified plan.)

The selected medical centre will reply to the Insured Person with a written medical report within 10 business days from receipt of the required documents, medical proof and information of the Insured Person by the selected medical centre.

Limitations to Liabilities

1. All service providers rendering services to the Insured Person under these terms and conditions for Second Medical Opinion are not employees, agents or servants of the Company. Accordingly, the service providers shall be responsible for their own acts, and the Insured Person shall not have any recourse or claim against the Company in connection with any services rendered by the service providers.
2. The Company assumes no liability in any manner and shall not be liable for any loss arising out of or howsoever caused by any advice given or services rendered by or any acts or omissions of any service providers.
3. The Company shall not be held responsible for any failure or delay to provide the SMO service on the part of the service provider if such failure or delay is caused by or contributed to by acts of God, or any circumstances and conditions beyond their control, including but not limited to, any administrative, political or government impediment, strike, industrial action, riot, civil commotion, or any form of political unrest (including but not limited to war, terrorism, insurrection), adverse weather conditions, flight conditions or situations where the provision of the SMO service is prohibited or delayed by local laws, regulators or regulatory agencies.
4. Any request for the use of the SMO service is made of the Insured Person's own accord. The Insured Person shall be solely responsible for all costs incurred in receiving any treatment as recommended by the service provider. A recommendation of treatment by the service provider does not imply or represent consent on the part of the Company to reimburse or be held liable for any expenses in relation to such treatment. In no event shall the Company be liable under these terms and conditions for Second Medical Opinion for any incidental, special, consequential or indirect loss, damages, costs, charges, fees or expenses arising from the provision of the SMO service.

Definitions

Terms defined below and any other terms defined in these terms and conditions for Second Medical Opinion shall only be applicable to these terms and conditions for Second Medical Opinion and shall have the same meaning wherever used within these terms and conditions for Second Medical Opinion unless the context otherwise requires.

“Second Medical Opinion” or “SMO”

shall mean the second medical opinion service offered by the Company and more particularly set out in these terms and conditions for Second Medical Opinion.

Terms and Conditions for “24-hour Worldwide Emergency Aid”

Section I: Definitions

Accident – Shall mean an unforeseen and involuntary event which causes an injury.

24-hour Worldwide Emergency Aid - shall mean the medical and emergency assistance and/or other related services as set out in Section II (Emergency Assistance Service and Benefits) of this terms and conditions, provided through an emergency service provider appointed by the Company.

Bodily Injury – Shall mean any unforeseen Bodily Injury caused solely and directly by violent, accidental, external and visible means, excluding illness or disease, occurring during the period covered by the Policy.

Company – Blue Cross (Asia-Pacific) Insurance Limited

Emergency – Shall mean a serious medical situation or distress which could not be reasonably prevented and for which specific external help is required.

Insured Person – A person whose name has been included for coverage on or added by endorsement to the Policy and not removed by endorsement prior to any relevant event.

Illness – Shall mean any unforeseen illness or disease first manifested after the effective date of the Policy.

Immediate Relative – Shall mean legal spouse, children (natural or adopted), siblings, siblings-in-law, parents, parents-in-law, grandparents, grandchildren, legal guardian, stepparents or stepchildren.

Policy – Shall mean and refer to the entire Policy document between the Insured Person and the Company including Application, Proposal, Declaration or Beneficiary Designation Form submitted or made by the Insured Person, the Terms and Conditions, the Schedule of Benefits, Insurance Certificates issued hereunder and any endorsements thereto.

Place of Residence – Shall mean Hong Kong Special Administrative Region or the province of a country specially declared by the Insured Person in the application form of the Company.

Regular Passenger – Shall mean the Insured Person who is normally able to be seated in any means of transportation without stretchers for repatriation to his/her Place of Residence.

Section II: Emergency Assistance Service and Benefits

Without limiting Section III (General Exclusions) of this terms and conditions, if the Insured Person shall suffer serious Bodily Injury or sudden Illness outside Place of Residence while arising out of and in the course of his/her journey provided that such journey or period of expatriation is not undertaken against the advice of the physician, and/or for the purpose of obtaining or seeking any medical or surgical treatment abroad, the Insured Person or his/her personal representative may call the “24-hour Worldwide Emergency Aid” hotline for the following services on condition that the Insured Person shall not be entitled to the reimbursement of any expenses incurred or paid by him:

1. Medical Attention Telephone Medical Advice, Evaluation and Referral Appointment

When medical advice is needed, the Insured Person may call the “24-hour Worldwide Emergency Aid” hotline for medical advice and evaluation from the attending physician. However, it shall be stressed that telephone conversation cannot establish a diagnosis and shall be considered as an advice only. If medically necessary, the Insured Person shall be referred to another physician or to a medical specialist for personal assessment and the Company will assist the Insured Person in making the medical appointment, if available locally. All physician's fees and related charges shall be borne entirely and directly by the Insured Person.

2. Medical Evacuation

Should the Insured Person suffer from Bodily Injury or sudden Illness in which the Company's medical team and the attending physician recommend hospitalization in a or another medical facility where the Insured Person can be suitably treated, the Company will arrange and pay for the transfer of the Insured Person into one of the nearest hospital and if necessary on medical grounds:

- a) The transfer of the Insured Person with necessary medical supervision by any means (including but not limited to air ambulance, scheduled commercial flight and road ambulance) to a hospital more appropriately equipped for the particular Bodily Injury or Illness, or
- b) The direct repatriation, including road ambulance transfers to and from the airports, of the Insured Person with necessary medical supervision by scheduled airline to an appropriate hospital or other health care facility near his permanent residence, if his medical condition permits such repatriation. The medical team and attending physician will determine the necessary arrangements according to the circumstances.

The Company retains the absolute right to decide the place to which the Insured Person shall be evacuated and the means or method by which such evacuation will be carried out having regard to all the assessed facts and circumstances of which the Company is aware at the relevant time.

3. Repatriation After Treatment

When the medical condition of the Insured Person after local treatment will not prevent his/her medically supervised repatriation as a Regular Passenger, according to the medical opinion of both the attending physician and the Company's medical team, the Company will organize and pay for the repatriation of the Insured Person to his/her Place of Residence by scheduled airline flight (on economy class basis) or any other appropriate means of transportation (on economy class basis), including any supplementary transportation to and from the airport. Any decision on the repatriation of the Insured Person who is under constant medical supervision shall be made jointly and exclusively by both the attending physician and the Company's medical team.

4. Repatriation of Mortal Remains / Ashes

Upon the death of an Insured Person, the Company will arrange and pay for the repatriation of the Insured Person's body or ashes to the Insured Person's Place of Residence.

5. Deposit Guaranteeing of Hospital Admission

In the event of the Insured Person suffering from Bodily Injury or sudden Illness resulting in hospital confinement for Emergency treatment, the Company will guarantee or provide hospital admission deposit up to HKD 40,000, provided that such confinement is duly approved by both the attending physician and the Company's medical team and the Insured Person is without means of payment of the required hospital admission deposit.

6. Compassionate Visit

In the event of the Insured Person suffering from serious Bodily Injury or sudden Illness resulting in hospital confinement for more than 3 (three) consecutive days, or the Insured Person's death, outside his/her Place of Residence, the Company will arrange and pay for the travelling costs (one way economy fare basis) for two Immediate Relatives of the Insured Person to travel from the Insured Person's Place of Residence to be with the Insured Person, up to a maximum of HKD 40,000 per Assistance Event.

7. Return of Unattended Dependent Child(ren) to Place of Residence

If any of the Insured Person travelling dependent child(ren) under 19 years of age is left unattended by reason of the Insured Person's Bodily Injury or sudden Illness resulting in hospital confinement outside his/her Place of Residence, the Company will organize and pay up to HKD 40,000 for the cost of a scheduled airline ticket (on economy fare basis) and any hotel accommodation if required whilst waiting for the scheduled flight for such child(ren) to return to his/her home in the Insured Person's Place of Residence, including any supplementary cost of transportation to and from the airport, if the original ticket is not valid for the return, provided that the Insured Person shall surrender any unused portion of the return ticket to the Company. If necessary, the Company will also hire and pay for a qualified attendant to accompany any such dependent child(ren) for return journey.

8. Hospital Deposit Guarantee in China

If the Insured Person suffers from Bodily Injury or sudden Illness and needs to be hospitalized in China, the Insured Person may contact the Company. The Company will refer the Insured Person to the nearest hospital under the Company's China Hospital Network, and will provide guarantee for the required hospital admission deposit to the hospital.

Under all circumstances the Insured Person shall fully and directly settle the medical expenses including the hospital admission deposit guaranteed by the Company prior to or upon discharge of the Insured Person from the hospital.

9. Legal Assistance

In case the Insured Person is involved in a civil litigation following an Accident, the Company will:

- a) Provide for the defence of the Insured Person in legal proceedings against him/her for civil liability to Laws in force in the country, and
- b) Conduct proceedings in order to obtain an indemnity from an identified third party on behalf of the Insured Person following a personal injury, and/or damages to his/her personal belongings provided if the extent of such damage is estimated to be in excess of HKD 5,000.

In such cases, the counsel and/or lawyer appointed by the Company shall act in a legal capacity of the Insured Person without any recourse to, responsibility of, or indemnification by the Company by reason of its appointment of counsel and/or lawyer. The Company will pay for the counsel and/or lawyer's fee, up to a maximum limit of HKD 40,000.

The Insured Person shall not make any offer or promise of payment or admit of fault to any party without the prior approval of the Company. The Insured Person must cooperate with the Company and do nothing to prejudice his/her rights.

10. Bail Bond Assistance

In the event the Insured Person requires legal assistance due to detention, arrest or imprisonment while travelling outside his/her Place of Residence, the Company will provide the name, telephone number, and if requested and if available, opening hours of legal practitioners or lawyers firms worldwide. The Company will also advance the bail bond up to a maximum limit of HKD40,000 upon request and if appropriate. The provision of financial guarantee to the Insured Person will be subject to the Company first securing payment from the Insured Person through his/her representative or family members.

11. Other Assistance

- a) Upon request from a local attending physician, the Company will, while possible and legally permissible, dispatch any essential medicine and/or medical equipment required for the treatment of the Insured Person, if not locally available. The Insured Person shall bear the cost of the items dispatched and the relevant transportation costs, unless these items are required for Emergency according to the opinion of the Company's medical team;
- b) The Company will monitor the Insured Person's medical condition if the Insured Person is hospitalized outside his/her Place of Residence and will update the Insured Person's employer or family members on his/her medical condition.
- c) In the event of loss or misrouting of the Insured Person's luggage by a common carrier, the Company will liaise with the relevant entities such as but not limited to airline companies, customs officials, and will organize the dispatch of such luggage, if recovered, to such place as the Insured Person may direct.
- d) The Insured Person may contact the Company to obtain general travel information and services (eg. vaccinations requirements and needs, weather conditions, etc), before starting or during his/her journey. Before the departure or during the journey the Insured Person may also request the Company to send reminder(s), for whatsoever reasons, via short message system.
- e) The Company will assist the Insured Person in reorganizing his/her flight schedule should an Emergency oblige him/her to alter his original plan.
- f) In the event of the death of the Insured Person's Immediate Relative in his/her Place of Residence while the Insured Person is travelling overseas (excluding the case of immigration) necessitating an unexpected return to his/her Place of Residence, the Company will arrange and pay for the cost of a scheduled return airline ticket (on economy class basis) for the return of the Insured Person.
- g) The Company will arrange and pay for the additional travel expenses (on economy basis) incurred by the Insured Person, his/her Immediate Relative, or friend related to an incident requiring the Benefit of Medical Evacuation (up to HKD 7,800 limit of indemnity for any one Insured Person per assistance event)
- h) In case of loss or theft of essential documents or personal identification documents (eg. passport, entry visa, etc.), the Company will provide the Insured Person with the necessary information regarding the formalities to be fulfilled with the appropriate local authorities or entities, in order to obtain the replacement of such lost or stolen documents.
- i) In the event of the Insured Person suffering from Bodily Injury or sudden Illness resulting in hospital confinement, the Company will arrange and pay for the cost of an ordinary room accommodation in any reasonable hotel up to HKD 1,200 per day for a maximum of 5 (five) consecutive days, incurred by the Insured Person for the sole purpose of convalescence immediately following his/her discharge from the hospital, and if deemed medically necessary by both attending physician and the Company's medical team.

Section III: General Exclusions
